

UPNG Student Gen-AI Survey 2025: Waigani campus

The AI technology is rapidly transforming education around the world. This survey aims to measure the impact of AI on UPNG undergraduate students' learning and motivation.

This survey is anonymous. Your Student ID email address will be stored separately and will not be linked to the study. Though highly solicited, your participation in this study is voluntary. Whether you use AI or not, your insights will inform institutional research and contribute significantly to the development of resources and policies regarding AI use in UPNG, thus benefiting you directly.

If you would like to contribute to this important research, please answer the questions below – this will take no more than 7-10 minutes of your time.
